

GOSSAMER

Lois Lowry
Houghton Mifflin, 2006

Web sites:

We all have our favorites, but these are just a few suggestions...

<http://loislowry.com/>

Lois Lowry's own web site

<http://www.kidsreads.com/authors/au-lowry-lois.asp>

Scholastic author site. The Author Talk will provide ideas for discussion as will the Review of the book: mythical creatures, dreams, nightmares, names, friendship, loneliness, anger, abuse, companionship.

http://hclib.org/pub/bookspace/BookClubsKid_Leading.cfm

Hennepin County Library's bookspace book clubs Tips and guidelines for planning and running a Teen or Kids book club, including good generic questions.

<http://www.canadianbookclubs.com/discuss.html>

This page provides another list of suggested discussion questions that would be appropriate for the Teen list or re-worded for younger kids.

<http://www.amazon.com> and <http://www.barnesandnoble.com>

Use both of these sites for literature reviews as well as customer reviews. The reviews by young people proved good insight and material for discussion.

Dreams & Sleeping –

- The Dream Book: a young person's guide to understanding dreams
By Patricia Garfield
- Dreaming in the Night: how you rest, sleep and dream
By Steve Parker
- Zzz...the most interesting book you'll ever read about sleep
By Trudee Romanek
- Dreaming and Dreams
By Patricia A. Stafford